WORLD'S CHAMPION IS WHITE SOX TEAM

Chicago Americans Take The Fourth From National.

Thousands Witnessed the Game Sunday When Winners Earned Their Victory.

SUMMARY OF FINAL MATCH

Games won—Sox 4, Cubs 2.
Saturday's score—Sox 8, Cubs 6.
Yesterday's score—Sox 8, Cubs 3.
Attendance to date—120,596.
Batteries—Walsh, White and Sullivan for Sox; Reulbach, Pfister, Brown, Overall and Kling for Cubs.
Temperature—3 p. m., 75.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 15.—The Chicago team of the American Baseball league is the champion of the world. By winning Sunday's game 8 to 3, against the local Nationals, the Americans earned the right to float the world's championship pennant as well as the pennant of the American league, and to ride to the grounds next season in carriages and have "World's Champions" on the blankets worn by the horses.

Today's game was the sixth of the series and the fourth victory for the Americans.

The crowd was loth to leave the grounds after the game ended. Thousands poured out of the bleachers and circus seats onto the field. Yells and screams redoubled. It was pandemonium let loose. The players tried to cling together for protection but a moment sufficed to make each the center of a half crazed throng out of which each had to fight his way.

Sox Earned Victory.

That the victory was fairly earned was shown not only by the fact that the Americans won four of the six games, but also by their total hits and runs. The Americans made 22 runs compared with 18 by the Nationals. The Nationals had but five errors compared with 14 by the Americans. The latter also made a greater number of extra base hits.

Fourteen hits and two doubles, tells the story of today's game. Captain Chance elected Mordecai Brown to the pitcher's box although Brown pitched a hard game Friday. The Americans connected with a weak delivery for eight safe hits in one and two thirds innings and Overall, who was called in yesterday to retrieve that game, was again called upon and held the Americans down to six hits and one run during the remainder of the game. His support was excellent.

Tinker and Evers by blocking hits prevented runs as did Hoffman in center, by spectacular running catches. Scheckard also made a great backward running catch.

"Doc" White a Puzzle.

When the Americans assumed a lead of six runs, the National players were a grimly determined lot, but try as they would, they could not solve the puzzling delivery of "Doc" White. Time after time the heavy hitters of the team batted easy, when hits meant runs. They gathered only seven safeties off White. Part of the crowd rooted hard for a ninth inning rally.

Tinker to his evident chagrin went out. Evers raised hopes by a scratch double to right but Kling promptly failed. Gessler batted for Overall and was allowed to walk. Hoffman singled to left and Evers scored. Scheckard went on an error. Schulte, with all the burden of a forlorn hope on his shoulders, hit a grounder straight to Donohue and the great series passed into baseball history.

The score: R H E
Amer... 3 4 0 0 0 0 1 x-8 14 3
Nat'l... 1 0 0 0 1 0 0 1-3 7 10

Theatrical Notes

KENTUCKY THIS WEEK.

Tuesday... "Simple Simon Simple."

Wednesday... "Old Innocence."

Thursday... "The Toast of the Town."

Friday... "Simple Simon Simple."

William C. Welp, who has the role of Simon in "Simple Simon Simple," which comes to The Kentucky tomorrow night, is making his first appearance in the one night stands and Fred G. Nixon-Nirdlinger is being commended by newspapers generally for sending such an excellent company to the cities of the south-west.

"Old Innocence."

"Old Innocence," one of the most artistic comedies ever produced by Tim Murphy, and one in which this distinguished player scored some seasons ago unusual distinction, is being given a splendid revival by Mr. Murphy and his associates and is to be the attraction at The Kentucky on Wednesday night. As Jason Green (Old Innocence) Tim Murphy is the essence and very embodiment of the qualities that the title suggests.

Jane Kennark.

Says the Nashville Banner:

A clever actress, in a pleasing play, supported by a cast also possessing capabilities. Such was the Vendome's offering last night when Jane Kennark, a quondam favorite in stock work here, essayed the role of Betty Singleton in "The Toast of the Town." The reception given Miss Kennark could but have deeply gratified that able actress and though at first the loud applause was but for "aud lang syne," ere long it came in recognition of her present merit as well as past successes.

There was a fall of 3 feet in the last 48 hours. The wharfbat was busier this morning than it has been in several weeks. The Saltillo, Dick Fowler and Buttorff were there at the same time.

The Saltillo arrived at 7 o'clock this morning from the Tennessee river with a big trip. The rousters on the Saltillo are the most hustling bunch seen at the wharf in a long time.

The Dick Fowler got away on time for Cairo with a good trip in both departments. Freight usually accumulates over Sunday.

The Henry Harley came in at 8 o'clock this morning from Evansville and some delicate steamboating was witnessed while the Saltillo, Buttorff and Harley secured their berths around the wharfbat. The Dunbar arrived and departed for Evansville Sunday.

A rouster was lazily taking in the incoming steamer Henry Harley till his eyes rested on the name plate of the boat. Then he muttered with alarm, "Aw, hell! I owe a nigger on that boat. I better go up the hill."

The Buttorff arrived from Nashville Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock and left today at noon for Clarksville.

Three barges went off the ways today into the river after being caulked. More barges were taken out.

The Speed left today for Greenville, Miss. Mr. George Robertson with three packs of dogs left on the Speed to go bear hunting in Arkansas.

The Royal left at 10 o'clock this morning for Golconda on the first trip in several weeks. The Royal has been painted and put in fine trim.

The Henrietta will come out of the Cumberland river today.

The Clyde will arrive from the Tennessee river tonight and lie over till Wednesday evening.

The Wilford has gone up the Cumberland river after a tow.

The Inverness arrived last night from the Tennessee river and will tie up for several days for repairs.

A gasoline tug and several barges are expected today to go on the dry docks for repairs.

A Pittsburg dispatch says: Four towboats were disabled today by striking the wickets of the new dam No. 2 in the Ohio river. The Tornado injured its rudder and shaft and the Eliza S. lost her rudder. The P. M. Pfeil lost her rudder and the George W. suffered a broken shaft.

Coal will advance Nov. 1. Cars are in great demand, and mines find it impossible to get enough empty cars to fill orders. The excessive demand for coal at this time is causing a shortage both in coal and cars and the sooner you get your order placed for your winter coal the quicker it can be delivered.

Delays will be expensive to you, so order now.

Get Well Acquainted With The Mutual Life

It has been in existence sixty-three years. Public confidence and patronage have made it and kept it the largest and staunchest Life Insurance company in the world. It is owned by its policyholders. It protects thousands, but there are many others who should have the same protection. How about you? People who are so thoughtful and kind as to wish to provide as they can to-day for what will happen some other day, when they are taken from those they love and support, should get acquainted with

The Mutual Life Insurance Company

Let them read its history; analyze its statements; examine its investments; consult its agents. They will find a reason for its strength and stability and a reason for their confidence and patronage. The new management of the Mutual Life has been in control for nine months. Its report for the first six months will be mailed to anyone on request, or may be had of its agents. It tells what has been accomplished in conformity with the new Insurance Laws; shows the vast reductions, and indicates the unusual advantages yet to reach its policyholders. Its plain figures, given in a plain way, will convince any fair-minded person that The Mutual Life to-day justifies the good opinion of Bishop Chas. C. McCabe, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, who recently said:—"After long and careful consideration, I am thoroughly satisfied that the present administrations of both companies (the New York Life and the Mutual Life) are now effecting great economies and reforms, and that these institutions, purged as by fire, are now in a position to afford the protection of life insurance in better form, and on better terms, than any known in the past." It justifies also the good opinion of Mr. James C. Colgate and his associates, who, having policies to the amount of $3,000,000 in the Mutual Life, recently "resolved that the present executive officers and trustees are, in the opinion of the Policyholders' Protective Association of the Mutual Life, faithful to its interests, and that their administration of its affairs has been and is efficient, economical and beneficial to the policyholders."
